How to use excel for estimating

Steve Jones & Lee Fels will discuss the tools excel has to use in estimating. Excel offers excellent tools for the estimator and contractor.

Steve Jones has worked in the floor covering industry for over 30 years. He founded Floor Styles with his business partner in 1998. He has used excel as a tool for estimating, billing and for tracking project costs.

Lee Fels set up the computerized estimating department for ProBuild, A national building products supplier. He has extensive knowledge with using excel conducting quantity surveys, and estimating.
