

You're Invited

to learn how to save your company time and money

Mountainlands Area Plan Room and iSqFt invite you to attend a free Network Information session for interested bidders on commercial construction projects in Utah. This live, in-person seminar will explain how you can gain access to a comprehensive listing of currently bidding projects and how you can more effectively position yourself in front of leading General Contractors looking for bidders in your area.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

Wednesday, September 23, 2009
9:30 AM to 11:00 AM

Radisson Hotel Salt Lake City Downtown
215 West South Temple
Salt Lake City, UT 84101

Learn how to utilize technology to simplify your bidding efforts saving you both time and money on missed bid opportunities, wasted paper purchases and mistakes created by missed addenda.

“I would say we have secured over $200,000 in survey work in the last 6 months that would not have been possible without iSqFt.”

- Taylor, Wiseman & Taylor

All events are free to attend.
Breakfast will be provided.
